HOW TO APPLY FOR

International Programs Scholarship Opportunities

BEFORE YOU GET STARTED

You must be an admitted International Programs Florida State University student in order to be eligible to apply for a scholarship opportunity. FYA and FSA students, students directly enrolled at FSU-Panama, non-FSU students, and students with pending, released, or waitlisted applications are not eligible to apply.

STEP 1

Login to the FS4U Portal

fsu.academicworks.com

Visit the FS4U scholarship page and sign-in with your student login information.

Complete a General Application

If you have not already done so, complete a General Application. If you have already completed a General Application, you may want to update your information by applying for a new opportunity. If your college of major/minor has a scholarship opportunity, you will need to complete their application in addition to the General Application in order to be considered for their award.
Apply for IP Scholarship Opportunities

Once you complete the General Application, you can apply for International Programs scholarship opportunities. FS4U will automatically populate any scholarship opportunity you are eligible for. See our scholarship opportunities on the International Programs website here to be sure you choose the correct opportunity. If you do not see any of our scholarships in the opportunity list, you may not be eligible for our scholarship opportunities.

Letter of Recommendation

A recommendation from an FSU faculty or staff member will be required for the scholarship opportunity process. Once you input their name and e-mail address, they will be notified of your recommendation request via e-mail. Make sure your recommender is aware of the e-mail recommendation request.
STEP 5

Your Program Code

All students must provide their study abroad program code in order to move forward in the scholarship opportunity process. This code can be found in your acceptance e-mail or on your program page on the International Programs website.

Choral & Instrumental Education

The rich musical tradition of London brings to life the study of choral and instrumental music conducting for students and music educators alike. Students study with internationally known from Florida State University’s College of Music and may use this opportunity to complete a Master of Music Education degree. Additionally, if space allows, teachers of music may enrol use the program to renew their certification. Musical and cultural opportunities are integrated into the curriculum to provide a unique learning environment. The program directly connects FSU students with graduate students and renowned faculty in London higher education settings.

Program Sessions

Do not purchase airline tickets until advised to do so by International Programs.
